Verse of the Week: 1 Timothy 3:16 NASB 1995

"By common confession, great is the mystery of godliness:

He who was revealed in the flesh,

Was vindicated in the Spirit,

Seen by angels,

Proclaimed among the nations,

Believed on in the world,

Taken up in glory."

One of the important aspects of confession is the communal confession of our shared faith. Confession is not simply an individual act, but an act we share in the community. When we lift our voices to sing with one another, we are confessing our shared worship together. When we take of the Lord's Supper, we are confessing our shared beliefs together. When we recite Scripture at the end of the service, we are confessing our shared agreement together. Through baptism, the Lord's Supper, worship, Scripture reading, the proclamation of the gospel, and our shared doctrinal commitments, we confess our uniting beliefs with one another.
