Vol. 38, No. 14, April 5, 2026

Verse of the Week: Hebrews 7:25

"Therefore He is able also to save forever those who draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them."

This sermon will come in 3 parts, each focusing on Jesus as "the resurrection and the life." The hope of resurrection and immortality is central to the Christian faith and understanding of Jesus. Jesus, as the author of life and the slayer of death, can be experienced in the raising of Lazarus, Jesus' own resurrection to glory, the new resurrection life that his followers are now living, and the ultimate fate of death and hades in the age to come.

Tennessee Children's Home Food and Supply Drive

The Tennessee Children's Home at Karnes in Knoxville has asked for our help with a food and supply drive to meet some of their most pressing needs. All donations will be used directly to care for the children and teens they serve. This vital, Christ-centered organization depends on congregations like ours to help meet both the physical and spiritual needs of their students.

A list of needed food items and supplies may be found in the foyers. If you are able to contribute, collection boxes will be available in the foyer through Sunday, April 26. Monetary donations are also welcome and will be used to purchase perishable items.

Thank you for your generous support of this important work.

Grief Share will meet on Thursday, April 9, at 10:00 a.m. in Room 205. Grief Share is a grief recovery support group to help and encourage anyone who has lost a family member or friend. If you have questions, please contact Herb Byrd, Carl or Carol Holmes, Joanie Moore or Bev Hines.

Thank You Quilting Group!

Dear Quilting Group,
 We received the 25 beautiful handmade queen size quilts in March. It is always a delight to receive these items to use for families who have lost everything.

The recipients will be so grateful to receive them after suffering losses in the floods, tornados, fires, and hurricanes. We know that you put in a lot of time and effort in making these items. We appreciate your dedication, and we send you special thanks for all your hard work. We know that the Lord certainly will reward all your efforts in taking time to help the needy.

We pray for your continued support, as we strive to help others as disasters occur. Churches of Christ Disaster Relief
