Vol. 37, No. 25, June 22, 2025

Verse of the Week: Luke 10:27 NASB 1995

And he answered, "YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND; AND YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."

The early church stood out for its radical commitment to nonviolence in virtually every sphere of life. I believe this is an admirable and important mission in the kingdom. The world needs to be less violent and that starts with us. Christians should care deeply about human flourishing in God's world and this concern should shape how we respond to all sorts of controversial cultural questions. Christ-centered ethics will not always follow partisan political party lines. In this short series of lessons, we will address several culturally controversial issues from a Christ-centered framework, not for the purpose of controlling a vote, but so that we begin to reimagine our world through the lens of Christ's kingdom. The first topic we will cover is the value of life in the womb.

Isaiah 117

changing the way foster care begins

The question from Isaiah 117 Blount County: Will you help support our female guests by providing clothing for the spring/summer?

The answer from Maryville Church of Christ: A BIG YES with contributions of money & gift cards totaling $2050!

Clothing bins that were almost empty will now be filled all summer and beyond. A BIG THANK YOU!

The red door guests of Isaiah 117 Blount County will know they are "loved and not alone".

Pray for Maryville Members:

Joyce Humphries had a pacemaker put in on Wednesday and is scheduled to have a heart ablation on Friday. She is at Parkwest Hospital, room 339.
