Verse of the Week: Romans 6:23

There is nothing more tragic than to die separated from the Lord. This miserable fate, which we often call "Hell," is depicted in many ways throughout the Bible. Today, Hell is often conceived of in unhelpful and false ways. However, there are also true, important, bedrock Biblical teachings we should keep in mind as we approach this difficult topic. In this sermon, we will discuss various ways that the Bible describes eternal loss and why it is so important for us to take Jesus seriously.

It's a Girl!
